Key Challenges

SEPTEMBER 2028

The business generated a total revenue of $55.8M from 26.3K orders and sold approximately 197.8K products. However, key performance indicators show a significant decline compared to last year, with revenue decreasing by 75.8%, orders by 76.8%, and quantity sold by 76.4%, indicating a major business slowdown.

1. SIGNIFICANT REVENUE DECLINE

The company experienced a 75.8% decrease in total revenue, indicating a major drop in business performance.

challenges :-

Recovering sales growth and stabilizing revenue performance.

2. SHARP DECLINE IN ORDERS

Customer orders reduced by 76.8%, showing a significant reduction in customer purchasing activity.

Challenge:

Increasing customer acquisition and improving retention strategies.

3. HIGH DEPENDENCY ON OFFLINE STORES

Around 79.55% of revenue comes from offline stores, while online contributes only 20.45%.

Challenge:

Over-dependence on physical stores increases business risk and limits scalability.

4. UNDERPERFORMING BRANDS

Brands like Tailspin Toys generate very low revenue ($683K) compared to top-performing brands.

Challenge:

Improving low-performing brands through better product positioning and marketing.

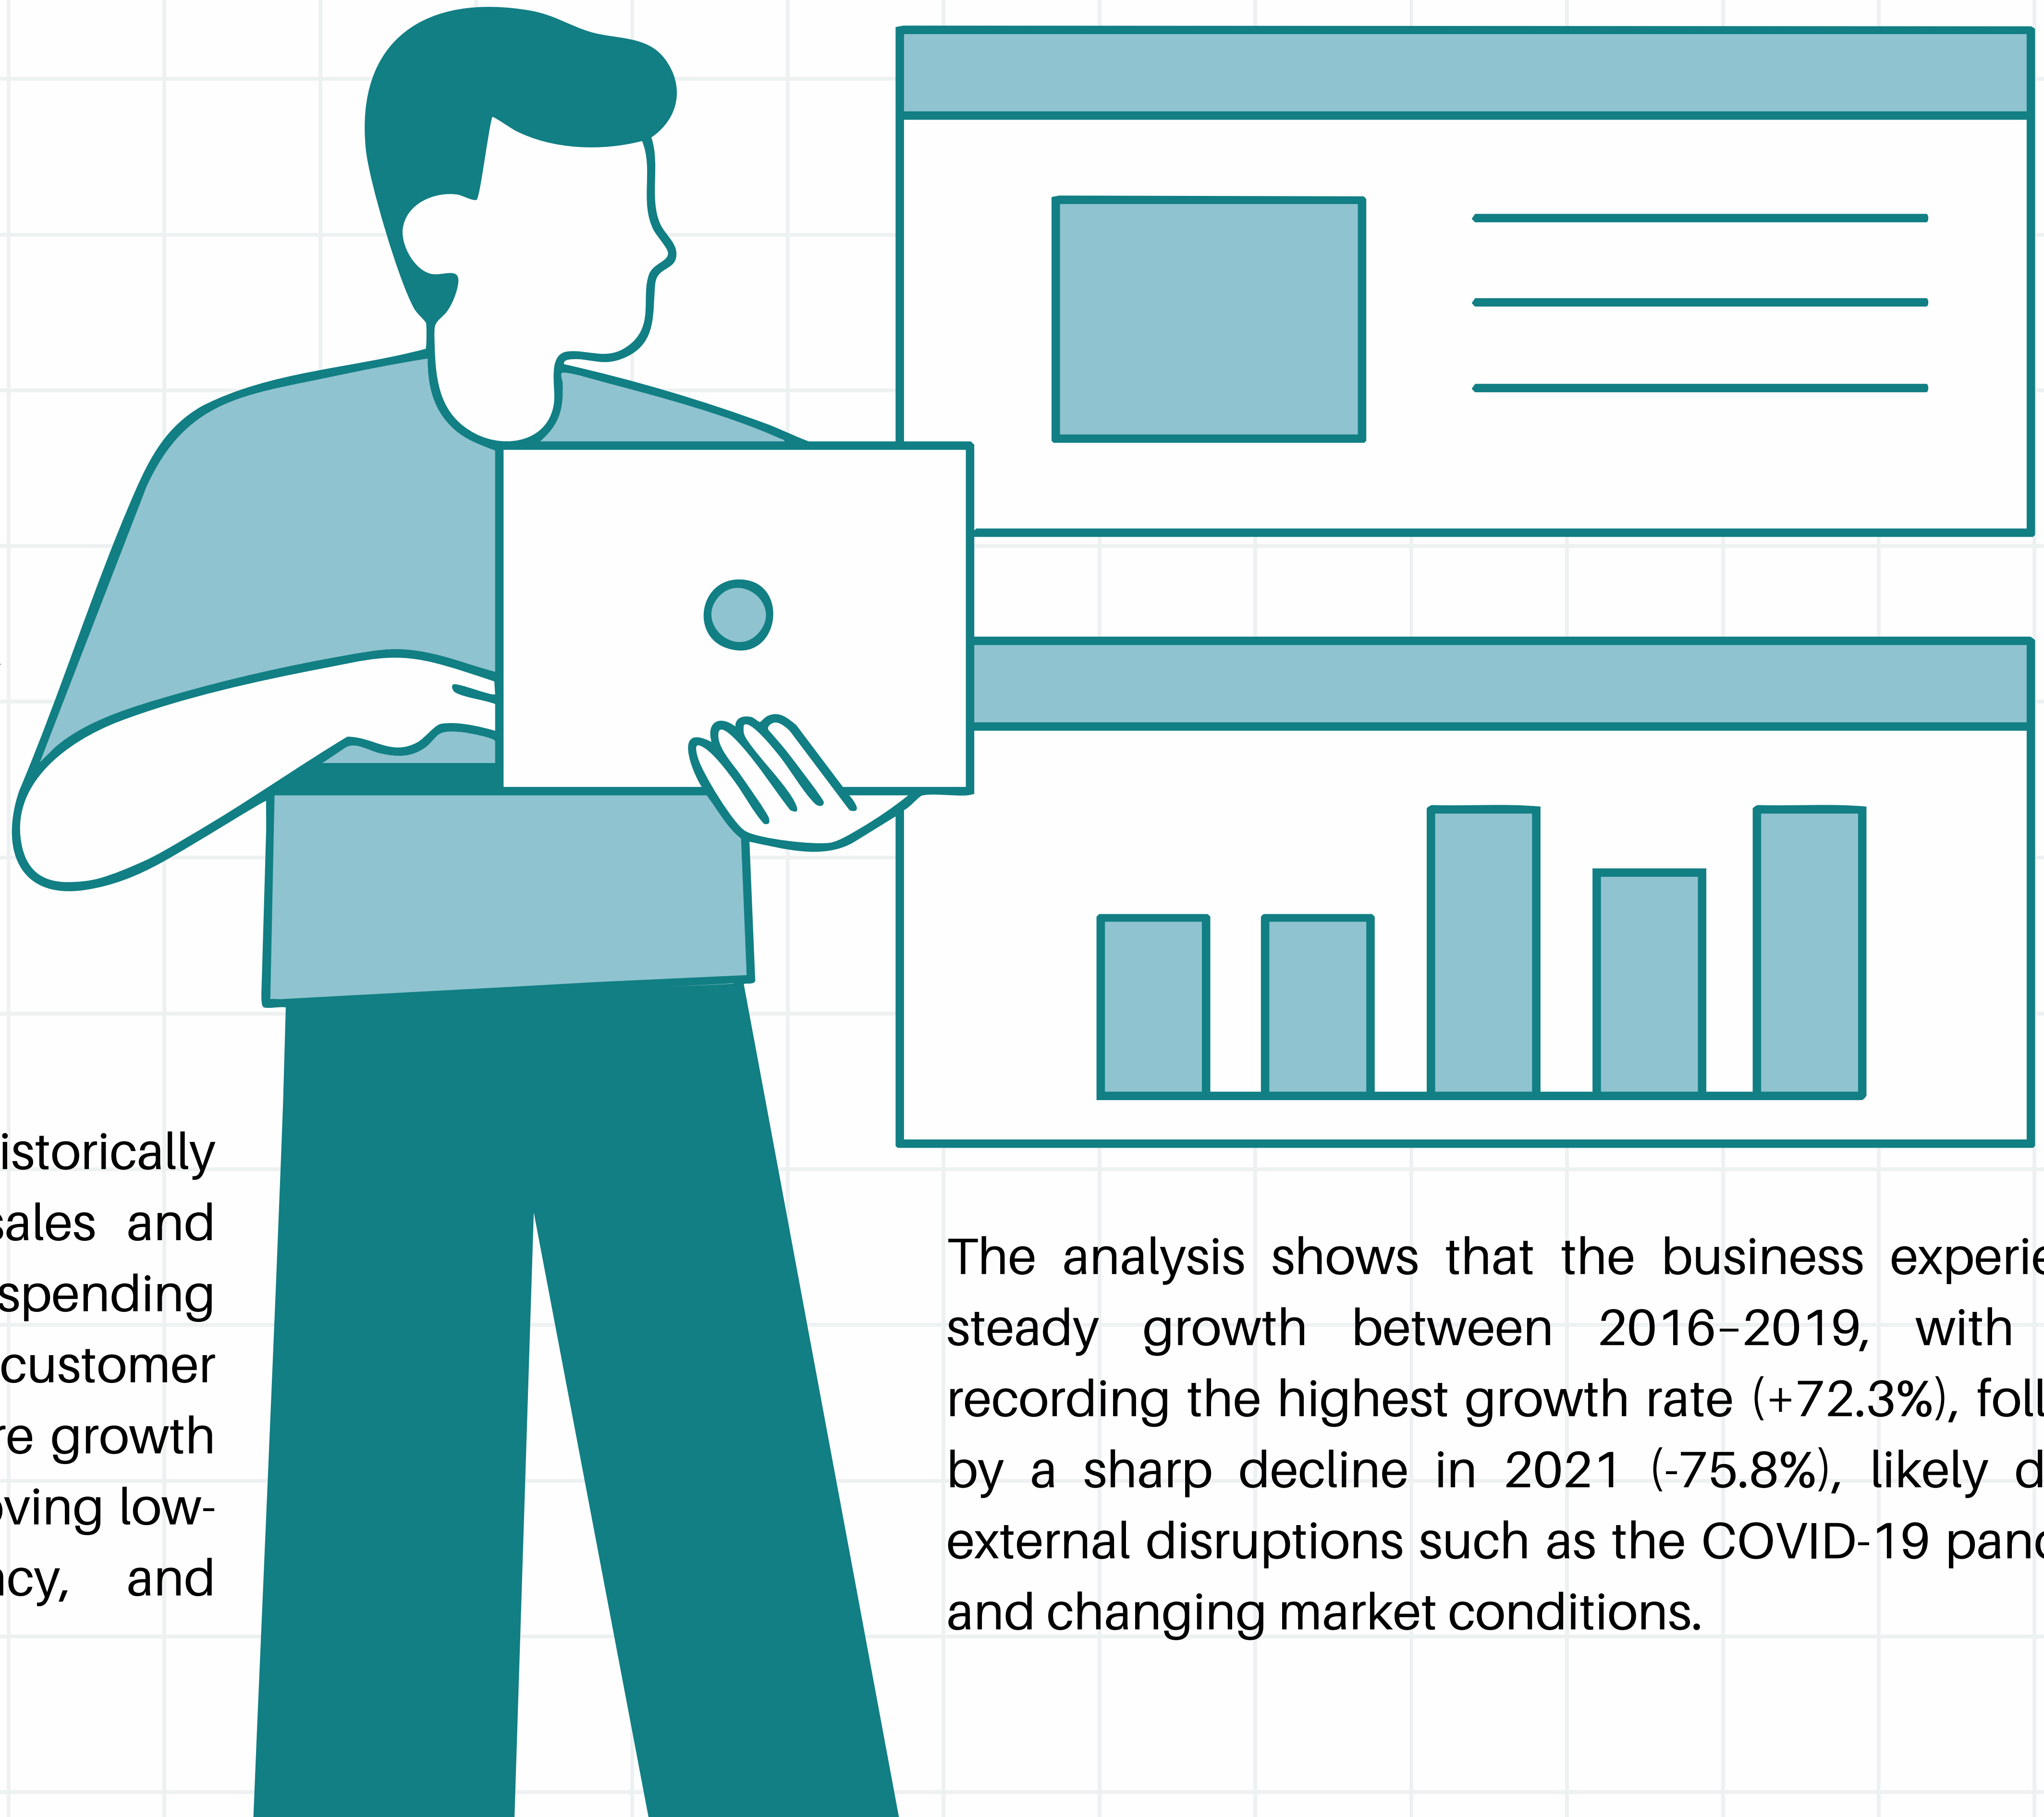
Summary

The Electronic Retail Sales Analysis Dashboard provides a complete overview of business performance by analyzing sales, products, customers, brands, and operational efficiency. The company generated $55.8M in total revenue through 26.3K orders and sold approximately 197.8K products, demonstrating strong historical business performance. However, key KPIs indicate a substantial decline compared to last year, with revenue, orders, and quantity sold decreasing significantly.



The business demonstrated strong growth potential historically but currently faces challenges due to declining sales and customer demand. However, increasing customer spending per order, strong-performing products, and stable customer contribution provide opportunities for recovery. Future growth can be achieved by strengthening online sales, improving low-performing brands, enhancing delivery efficiency, and implementing customer retention strategies.

The analysis shows that the business experienced steady growth between 2016–2019, with 2018 recording the highest growth rate (+72.3%), followed by a sharp decline in 2021 (-75.8%), likely due to external disruptions such as the COVID-19 pandemic and changing market conditions.
